Contractors Introduction

All Sourcing: The ideal partner for all your contracting needs

Why All Sourcing?

We take pride in putting our contractors at the heart of everything we do at All Sourcing.

We consistently offer high-quality services to our contractors. Our commitment to compliance and outstanding customer service is embedded into the culture of the business.

With years of experience, we have built a strong reputation that has earned us the trust and loyalty of our valued clients.

We are dedicated to delivering hassle-free payment solutions.

With a focus on customer care, cutting-edge technology, and an excellent compliance record, you can trust us to handle all your payment needs including Umbrella, CIS and accountancy.

We pride ourselves on our exceptional team, ready to support you on your contracting journey.

Never hesitate to contact our dedicated Customer Service and Sales teams, with a wealth of industry experience. They're here to assist you every step of the way.

We offer a range of flexible services to choose from

Umbrella

For contractors wanting to maintain the flexibility that contracting allows but with the security and benefits that employment brings. Umbrella provides the ideal choice.

Limited Company (PSC)

Contractors considering or already running their own limited companies will significantly benefit from registering with All Sourcing Professional, as our experienced team guides you through the initial setup to ongoing accountancy support once a business is established.

Self Employed (CIS)

Our All Sourcing CIS service is available to self-employed subcontractors working within the construction industry looking for a flexible contracting solution to maximise income. We also provide a similar service to contractors working outside the construction industry in various sectors.

Umbrella

Ideal for those wishing to maintain the flexibility that contracting offers whilst gaining the benefits that employment can bring.

We have an expert team to ensure joining is simple and pain-free, a call to one of our experienced agents will get you setup quickly, whether we are the first payroll company you have used or the hundredth.

- Comprehensive and detailed illustrations given at first contact
- No joining or exit fees, nor any minimum tie – in period
- Fully experienced customer service team to answer any questions and help with any expense questions
- All statutory tax, NI and other deductions are taken care of giving you full peace of mind
- Free mortgage advice
- Fully insured for the work undertaken
- Ability to contribute to a personal pension of your choice

Self Employed (CIS)

We're the ideal choice for self employed contractors

CIS offers self-employed sub-contractors working within the construction industry a flexible solution that allows them to maximise their income.

Our team will help contractors ensure that they remain compliant at all times and follow the requirements of the Construction Industry Scheme. There are several benefits available to contractors who decide to use the All Sourcing CIS service, such as;

- Reduced payment terms as opposed to contracting directly with a client
- Contractors will have access to further contracting opportunities through the recruitment agencies that All Sourcing work with
- Reduced administration time as All Sourcing CIS is a self-billing company
- Verification department to assist with taxation status
- We will provide an annual statement of contract income to assist with self-assessment tax returns for contractors
- Public liability cover is included, and therefore there is no need for contractors to have separate cover on assignments
- End of year assessments for self-employed contractors.
- Contractors will have personal accident cover. Therefore if you have an accident on assignment and are unable to work, you will receive a regular payment from this insurance. Benefits include £20k Accidental Death and Disablement Benefit, £200 per week Temporary Total Disablement

Personal Pension

If you have a pension that you currently contribute to and wish to continue to use, then Sterling Umbrella has the perfect solution for you.

Our personal pension option allows you to contribute a set amount from your weekly or monthly pay, which means you benefit from tax and NI savings similar to a salary sacrifice scheme.

We work with a wide range of pension providers, giving contractors the ultimate choice when saving for their future. Contact one of our expert team members for an illustration and a pension form.

*Complete the form and then sit back whilst we take care of the rest.
